Program Sharing ~

Lisa Cook (Decat Report) – CPPC update about AmeriCorps renewal and that it will be a short process. Mobilizing Communities Convention went well in Osceola.

Chris Nelson “Money Matters” discussion was held whether the renewal of the contract will be established. Adams County Extension is holding a Tractor safety class – needing 13 and 14 year olds. 24 hour class for a permit dates are June 9-11th and the 13th fee for the class is $30. An update from the Kid Care Council was given about the Adams County Fair.

Chris Heimke (PAT) Annual report due July 15th – referral has been made.

Andrea Corbino (Area 14 Agency on Aging) - talked about an emergency kit to have prepared in case of an emergency like: medication, extra clothes, medical records, tools, food and water. Safety plan needs to be discussed with your family on what to do during an emergency. Know who to call, where to go, and what to do. Senior Day at the fair will be a great success things are going well. Encouragement has been given to other counties to have a Senior Day also using Adams County as a model.

Victoria Brammer (CPPC and PCA) – New website should be finished this week: www.iowacommunitypartners.org covers the three county area including Empowerment, Interagency, PCA Councils, SDMT, Community meetings, and a calendar of events.

Mission Statement discussion was held and then adopted as the following:
Chris Nelson made a motion to approve the mission statement, Chris Heimke seconded, motion carried. Agency Recruitment – need more people in attendance including school personnel and empowerment areas.
